

THROWBACK THURSDAY

Bosse's News Depot

The last customer leaves Bosse's News Depot the day before the building on the northwest corner of Adams and Cherry streets was razed in 1956. The business not only sold newspapers and magazines, but also was a place where people gathered to discuss the news. It has been said that the business was visited by more people than any other store of its size, and in good weather, the crowded shop would force patrons outside to talk.

Bosse's continues to do business in Green Bay at 220 Cherry St.
